CATHOLIC COURTESY

Within the Parish:

REGISTRATION

1. A family should be registered in the parish soon after it moves into the parish limits. The head of the family should call at the rectory to give information on school-age children, and sick or infirm persons who cannot attend Mass so that they may be placed on the Communion list. All information should be supplied which will enable the priests to render spiritual aid to the family.

2. A family leaving the parish should similarly inform the pastor of its departure.

3. Attending Mass in another parish does not alter membership in one's own parish, nor relieve one of one's responsibilities to it.

4. Calls at the rectory should be scheduled, if possible, by phoning in advance for an appointment.

SICK CALLS

1. In cases of grave illness or danger of death, the rectory should be notified without delay, no matter what the hour.

2. The sick person should be encouraged to recite an act of contrition pending the arrival of the priest.

EASTER

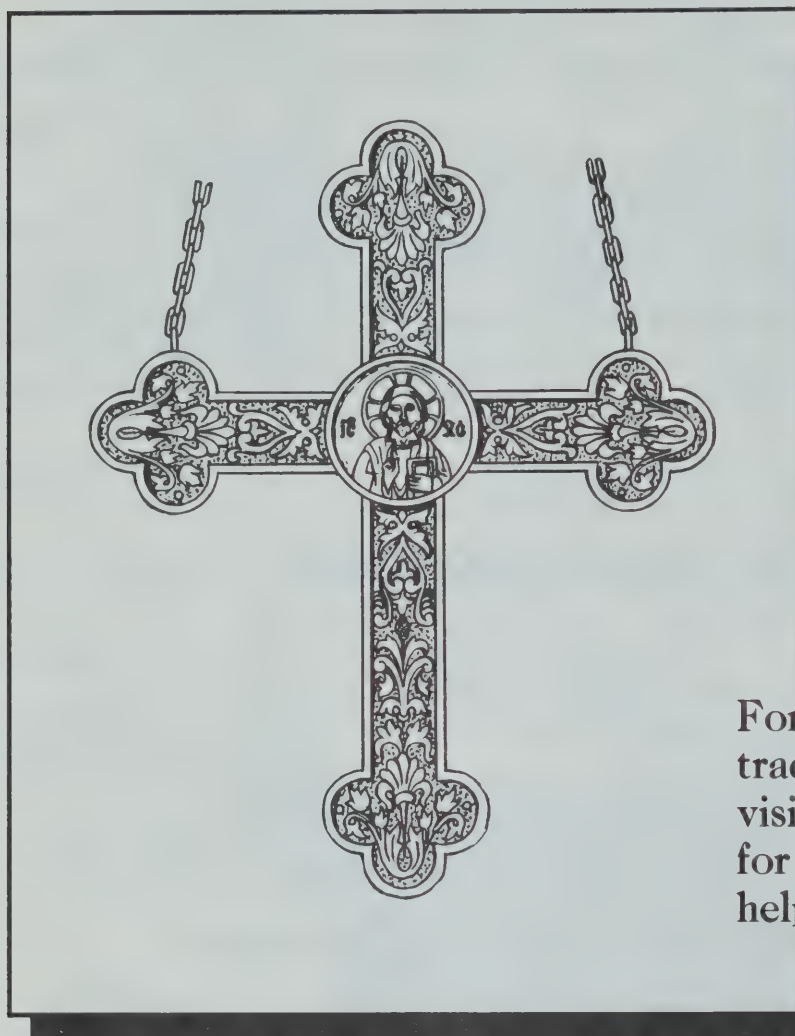

Easter Sunday is the first Sunday after the first full moon which occurs on or after March 21. It may be as early as March 22 or as late as April 25. In 1988 it will fall on April 3.

The six and a half weeks which precede Easter Sunday are known as Lent. However, as restrictions are lifted on Sunday, the forty weekdays of this period constitute Lent during which the faithful are exhorted to follow the example of Our Lord and Saviour in His fast of forty days and nights in the desert. In 1988, Ash Wednesday will fall on February 17.

About the Cover

The Cover celebrates the Centennial of St. Cecilia's, Boston the erection of the historic Back Bay Parish by Boston's memorable "Irish working out girls" the church which has broadcast an uninterrupted radio devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary through the 40's, 50's, 60's, 70's, and 80's, and the unusual coincidence of the Golden Anniversary of the pastor's priesthood.

CHARITIES

A man will reap only what he sows. If he sows in the field of the flesh, he will reap a harvest of corruption; but if his seed-ground is the spirit, he will reap everlasting life. Let us not grow weary of doing good; if we do not relax our efforts, in due time we shall reap our harvest.

The soul that desires to advance in the spiritual life must always take a course contrary to that of the enemy. If the enemy seeks to make the conscience lax, he must strive to make it more sensitive, and if the enemy endeavors to make it delicate to excess, the soul must strive to establish itself solidly in moderation so that it may better maintain its tranquility.

Protect The Family Tree.

in Boston, a few devoted Catholic families planted the seed of a new idea, a fraternal insurance society for mutual protection and social benefit. Since then, with the help of God, the seed grew and became a tree and the tree grew and became a forest. To demonstrate the need to protect and preserve the Family Tree in those days of many privations, the founders called the Society the Catholic Association of Foresters. To protect the Family Tree is still the Society's central purpose.

Life insurance protection is one way the Society fulfills the needs of its members. Equally important are the social, spiritual, educational and charitable activities participated in by members and their families.

How about you and your family? We will be glad to receive your call and to furnish you with all the details of membership and insurance.

Please write or call our Home Office at the address below.

Pontifical Decorations

The Holy See confers various titles, orders, decorations, and other honors on certain persons, usually lay people, who in some special manner have distinguished themselves in furthering the well-being of humanity and of the Church.

The Supreme Order of Christ was started by Pope John XXII in 1319. Today it is the supreme pontifical Order of Knighthood, conferred only on very rare occasions.

The Order of the Golden Spur follows the Order of Christ as a pontifical decoration. It has one class of 100 Knights, and is awarded only to those who have furthered the cause of the Church by outstanding deeds. It is bestowed also to non-Catholics.

The Order of Pius IX has three classes, Knights of the Grand Cross, Commanders, and Knights. It is awarded also to non-Catholics.

The Order of St. Gregory the Great was founded by Pope Gregory XVI in 1831. It has two divisions, civil and Military, each of which is divided into three classes: Knights of the Grand Cross, Commanders, and Knights.

The Order of St. Sylvester, instituted in 1841, like the Order of St. Gregory, has three classes of Knights.

The Order of the Holy Sepulchre is considered one of the oldest of pontifical honors; it is today highly prized in Europe. It has been bestowed on kings and nobles, on heads of republics, on persons outstanding in arts, letters, and science, on those who in special manner have served the Church. Unlike other orders, this is bestowed on clerics and women.

The Order of Knights of Malta is the oldest order of laymen and prelates in the Church. Founded in the eleventh century, it traces its history to the Hospitallers of St. John of Jerusalem and to the Knights of Rhodes. Their membership comprises commanders and several classes of knights.

The medal "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice" was instituted by Leo XIII, that great "Pope of the Workingman," in 1888. It is awarded in recognition of special services to the Church and the Pope.

The "Benemerenti" medal was instituted in 1832 by Gregory XVI, of two classes, civic and military, in recognition of outstanding daring or courage.

Above all, let your love for one another be constant, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be mutually hospitable without complaining. As generous distributors of God's manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another, each in the measure he has received. The one who speaks is to deliver God's message. The one who serves is to do it with the strength provided by God. Thus, in all of you God is to be glorified through Jesus Christ: to Him be glory and dominion throughout the ages. Amen.
1 Peter 4:8-11.

If human love craves oneness, shall not Divine Love? If husband and wife seek to be one in the flesh, shall not the Christian and Christ pray for that oneness with one another? Every heart seeks a happiness outside itself, and since perfect Love is God, then our hearts and the heart of Christ must in some way fuse. This aspiration of the soul for its ecstasy is fulfilled in the Eucharist.

humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will never lose favor with God. For great is the power of God; by the humble He is glorified.

We will give you a free estimate for tuning, repairs or rebuilding. Chances are that your parish doesn't know what condition your pipe organ is in. There are far too many pipe organs that have been neglected over the years. We are taking fine care of the organs in the churches we serve. You can get involved in our maintenance program also. A tonal change or addition can do wonders to brighten up the voices of the organ."

But You, our God, are good and true, slow to anger and governing all with mercy. For even if we sin, we are yours, and know your might; but we will not sin, knowing that we belong to You. For to know You well is complete justice, and to know your might is the root of immortality. Wisdom 15:1-3

Just as birds have nests in the trees for when they must seek refuge, so must we choose a place each day — on the hill of Calvary, in the wounds of our Lord or some other place close to Him—to have a place of refuge for every kind of occasion, where we can refresh ourselves and recreate in between worldly events.

Good is the Lord to one who waits for Him, to the soul that seeks Him. It is good to hope in silence for the saving help of the Lord. It is good for a man to bear the yoke from his youth. Let him sit alone and in silence, when it is laid upon him. Let him put his mouth to the dust; there may yet be hope. Let him offer his cheek to be struck, let him be filled with disgrace. For the Lord's rejection does not last forever; though He punishes, He takes pity in the abundance of his mercies. He has no joy in afflicting or grieving the sons of men.

Lamentations 3:25-33.

Reaching for the sky.

It's our business. Boston Chimney & Tower has been erecting chimneys, towers and steeples and performing major building renovation work since 1937. We're good at our work. It's on time, no matter how short the schedule. And it's on or under budget, no matter how tight that budget might be.

Of all the work we've done, we're most proud of our jobs for the Boston Archdiocese.

My brothers, what good is it to profess faith without practicing it? Such faith has no power to save one, has it? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and no food for the day, and you say to them, "Good-bye and good luck! Keep warm and well fed," but do not meet their bodily needs, what good is that? So it is with the faith that does nothing in practice. It is thoroughly lifeless.

We shall see God and in Him we shall know all that we could ever want to know...Just now we pursue the truth in a land of shadows, stumbling our way through only because of our faith. But when we finally get to heaven we shall see face to face the answers that we now perceive only as riddles poorly reflected in darkened mirrors. When we get to heaven everything will be seen to fit together.
St. Augustine.

What To Do When You Can't Afford A New Organ

While it is certainly the dream of most church musicians that someday a new pipe organ might be purchased, the cost is impossible for all but the most affluent congregation.

Perhaps your present instrument is only a shadow of its former glory. As organist maybe you try to coax music from a gasping, uncooperative organ all the while remembering how magnificent and inspiring it once was.

In most cases your present pipe organ can be returned to near original condition. You could then realize many years of satisfactory performance at a fraction of the cost of a new instrument.

For example, we have recently rebuilt a 1927 Frazee for a church in Everett, MA. The congregation is thrilled with the results as well as the affordable cost. In another church a completely new action is being provided for a 1927 Estey with a failing tubular system. One of our larger jobs is the recent rebuilding of a two manual W.W. Kimball situated in a gallery. To this organ a three manual console has been added in the chancel and a five rank division, being installed near the choir and the console, will play from the third manual.

Tell those who are rich in this world's goods not to be proud, and not to rely on so uncertain a thing as wealth. Let them trust in the God who provides us richly with all things for our use. Charge them to do good, to be rich in good works and generous, sharing what they have. Thus will they build a secure foundation for the future, for receiving that life which is life indeed.

1 Timothy 6:17-19.

"Be compassionate, as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Pardon, and you shall be pardoned. Give, and it shall be given to you. Good measure pressed down, shaken together, running over, will they pour into the fold of your garment. For the measure you measure with will be measured back to you."

Luke 6:36-38

Tradition

the American Organ

One classical organ from America continues to make its mark throughout the world: the Allen Digital Computer Organ. Unique ability to replicate fine pipe organ sounds and adherence to age-old practices of fine organ building have created Allen's world-wide demand. In fact, Allen is the only American classical organ exported in significant quantities.

Europeans know fine organ sounds, and Allen is the American organ they are selecting. Find out what other countries are discovering about Allen Digital Computer Organs. Send for information.

The Church of St. Nizier, Lyon, France (a translation)

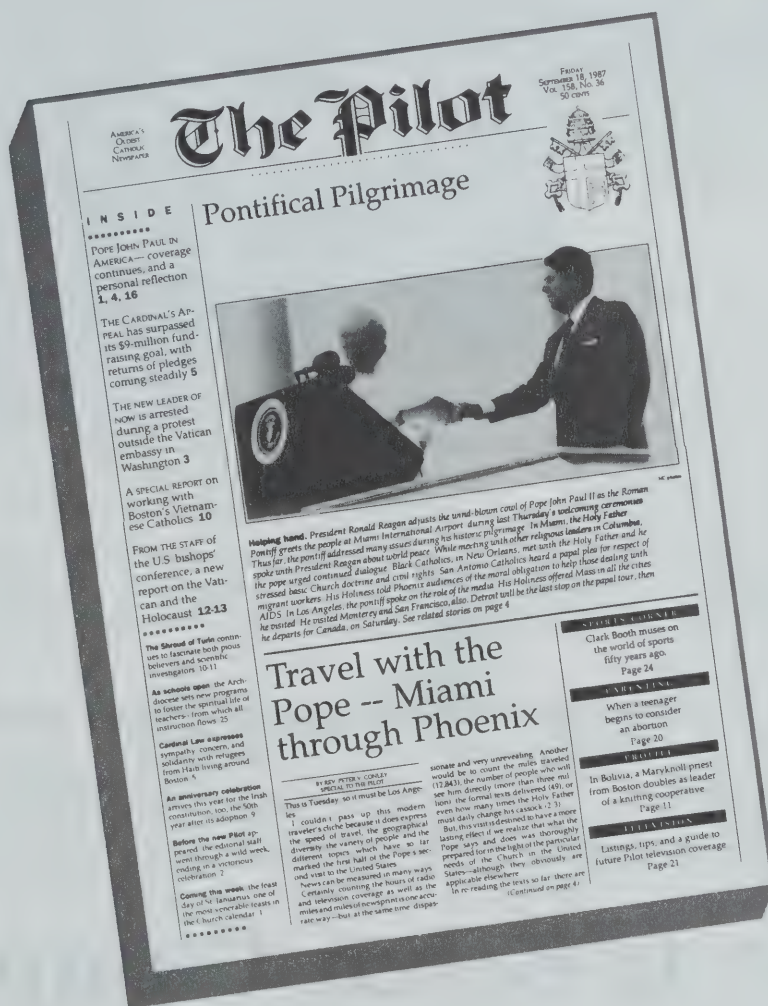

About the year 150, St. Pothin built an oratory on the site dedicated to the Virgin Mary. After the persecution of 177, ashes of the Martyrs of Lyon, retrieved from the river, thrown there by Romans, were placed in the Basilica. In the 8th Century, Bishop Leidrade restored St. Nizier and created a Chapter of Canons. During the 14th Century, Archbishop Louis de Villars started construction of the present church: sanctuary started in 1303; Renaissance portal finished in 1581. During the 19th Century, exterior and arches were reinforced. In 1857, architect Benoit finished the south steeple. In 1973, nave restoration began: Pillar foundations and south pillars were redone; then all pillars, arches and vault panels were rebuilt. In 1984, an Allen Organ was installed.

“Is Your Parish In Need of A New Church or Parish Center? Are There Repairs and/or Renovations Which Should Be Made Now? We Can Help You To Present A Fund Raising Program To Your Parishioners in a manner that is swift, sensitive and successful.” The O'Briens

Ste. Anne's Church
Salem, Massachusetts

An expression used by Fund Raisers in general is “We are as good as our last job.” If that be the case, I can only say to you who are considering hiring the O'Brien Company, hire them without reservation.

Knowing nothing about fund raising, and even being intimidated by it, we interviewed four firms; and with God's blessing, we chose the O'Brien Company. Our success here at Ste. Anne's was absolutely overwhelming. The enthusiasm and positive attitude of Tom O'Brien were infectious and contributed to a large degree to the success of the campaign. In the organizational meetings, Tom O'Brien listened patiently to the suggestions of everyone, and in a gentle but convincing manner, defended his strategies and method of operation. The success of the campaign proved him to be correct.

'A MONK'S BUSINESS'

"A monk is a man who has given up everything in order to possess everything...The monk's business is to empty himself of all that is selfish and turbulent and make way for the unapprehended Spirit of God."

-Thomas Merton

PERSONAL PRELATURES

Personal prelatures are jurisdictional structures of a secular type which are established by the Holy See as an instrument within the hierarchical pastoral work of the Church. They are governed by statutes laid down by the Holy See and consist of a Prelate, who is their own Ordinary, and the incardinated clergy. By a contract, lay persons can dedicate themselves to the apostolic works of the Prelature.

Personal prelatures are based on the principle of insertion into the local Church. In this they differ essentially from the personal dioceses, such as those constituted for the faithful of a particular rite, which are based on the principle of independence or autonomy in regard to the local Churches.

OPUS DEI (Complete name: Prelature of the Holy Cross and Opus Dei.) Legal title: The Work of God, Inc.

A personal prelature of the Catholic Church with the aim of spreading throughout society a profound awareness of the universal call to holiness and apostolate through one's daily work carried out with freedom and personal responsibility.

SISTERS OF JESUS CRUCIFIED AND THE SORROWFUL MOTHER

Lord, make me a channel of thy peace
That where there is hatred I may bring love,
That where there is wrong I may bring the spirit of forgiveness,
That where there is discord I may bring harmony,
That where there is error I may bring truth,
That where there is doubt I may bring faith,
That where there is despair I may bring hope,
That where there are shadows I may bring thy light,
That where there is sadness I may bring joy.
Lord, grant that I may seek rather
To comfort — than to be comforted;
To understand — than to be understood;
To love — than to be loved;
For it is by giving that one receives;
It is by self-forgetting that one finds;
It is by forgiving that one is forgiven;
It is by dying that one awakens to eternal life.

Dearly beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall later be has not yet come to light. We know that when it comes to light, we shall be like God, for we shall see God as God is. Since we have this hope based on Christ, we keep ourselves pure, as God is pure.

1 John 3:2-3

My child, if you receive my words and treasure my commands, turning your ear to wisdom, inclining your heart to understanding; yes, if you call to intelligence, and to understanding raise your voice; if you seek her like silver and like hidden treasures search her out: Then you will understand the fear of the Lord; the knowledge of God you will find.

You are strangers and aliens no longer. No, you are fellow citizens of the saints and members of the household of God.
You form a building which rises on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the capstone. Through Him the whole structure is fitted together and takes shape as a holy temple in the Lord; in Him you are being built into his temple, to become a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

The Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary seek the will of God spoken in the events of daily life, the calls of the Church, and the needs of society. Prayerfully attuned to the Spirit, and with the help of Mary, we strive to fulfill that will in a spirit of humility, obedience and love. Like the Good Shepherd, we are particularly attentive to the poor.

The good news spreads in our teaching, our work with troubled teens and unwed mothers, care for the sick and elderly, and through our participation on pastoral teams.

S.C.I.M.'s from the United States can be found in Maine, Massachusetts and Canada. We also serve in Brazil, Haiti, and South Africa.

Every believer in this world of ours must be a spark of light, a center of love, a vivifying leaven amidst his fellowmen.

Pope John XXIII

There are two kinds of people one can call reasonable; those who serve God with all their heart because they know him and those who seek him with all their heart because they do not know him

Blaise Pascal

The most pressing duty of Christians is to live the liturgical life and increase and cherish its supernatural spirit.

Pope Pius XII

When you encounter difficulties and contradictions, do not try to break them, but bend them with gentleness and time.

St. Francis de Sales

Without love and compassion for others, our own apparent love for Christ is a fiction.

Thomas Merton

A man can't be always defending the truth, there must be a time to feed on it.

C.S. Lewis

THE COVENANT FOR JUSTICE, EQUITY AND HARMONY

Because as People of Faith we believe we are both brothers and sisters and the creatures of one God:

Because as Americans we are committed to the fundamental constitutional principle that all people are created equal and are endowed with certain inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness:

Because we know that Freedom for everyone is the only climate conducive to full development of the human spirit:

And because we have witnessed in our society and in our city enough of conflict and violence so as to threaten the very fabric of our freedoms and diminish the dignity of all:

Be it here resolved:

- (1) That we seize the moment for a new day of peace and harmony in our common existence:
- (2) That in our deeper reverence for the God who commands us and for the nobility of humankind that impels, us, we denounce every form of violence in every neighborhood, we lay aside the weapons and words of political conflict, the taunts and jibes of insidious disrespect:
- (3) That we reject outright any and all special interest groups and leaderships that serve only to deepen our divisions and entrench us, angered, into separate camps.
- (4) That we perceive the legitimate struggles for equal justice and rights for everyone not as a cause that divides us, but as the imperative that unites us:
- (5) That we only respect but even celebrate the richness of our varied cultures, manners and traditions as they each, and together, contribute to the unique tapestry of our city.
- (6) That in prayer, in attitudes, we foster a new mood of healing and forgiveness so that we transcend not only our differences but even our grievances.
- (7) That here and now, at this time and in this city, we stand committed to bring fulfillment to a dream that must compel us all: "When all God's children, black people and white people, Jews and Gentiles, Catholics, Protestants, and Muslims will be able to join hands and sing..." Free at last. Free at last. Thank God Almighty we are free at last!!!!"
Free! right here in Boston. Free! from violence.
Free! from hatred. Free! from fear of one another.
Free! to live together. Free! to learn together.
Free! to build together. Free! to celebrate together.
Free! to pray to God together.

May God the Merciful witness our covenant, and out of the harmony of our differences may He grant us unison, in will and wisdom, to keep it.

You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Men do not light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket. They set it on a stand where it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, your light must shine before men so that they may see goodness in your acts and give praise to your heavenly Father.

Matthew 5:14-16.

When we love God's will we find Him and own his joy in all things.
But when we are against God, that is, when we love ourselves more than Him, all things become our enemies. They cannot help refusing us the lawless satisfaction our selfishness demands of them because the infinite unselfishness of God is the law of every created essence and is printed on everything that He has made.

THE THREE PRINCIPAL FEASTS OF THE YEAR ARE:

1. Christmas commemorating the birth of our Lord.
2. Easter Celebrating the Resurrection. (Easter is always the Sunday after the first full moon following March 21 and determines the position of the different seasons of movable festivals of the year.)
3. Pentecost celebrating the Descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles. Every day of the year the church commemorates her saints (Sanctoral cycle) and encourages the faithful to imitate them.

When men are animated by the charity of Christ, they feel united, and the needs, sufferings, and joys of others are felt as their own. Pope John XXIII

A scrap of knowledge about sublime things is worth more than any amount about trivialities. St. Thomas Aquinas

... A friend differs from a flatterer; the flatterer speaks to give pleasure, but the friend refrains from nothing, even that which gives pain. St. Basil

Justice is the virtue that gives to each his due. St. Augustine

When you encounter difficulties and contradictions, do not try to break them, but bend them with gentleness and time.

St. Francis de Sales

Beauty is indeed a good gift of God; but that the good may not think it a great good, God dispenses it even to the wicked.

St. Augustine

The whole mystery of the spiritual life is that Jesus is forever being born in us. The whole meaning of being Christian is to become bit by bit transformed into Jesus Christ. Jean Danielou

Adam and Eve Antique Entertainment

RELIVE THOSE MINSTREL DAYS WITH

NORM CONRAD'S MINI MINSTRELS

IF YOUR GROUP IS LOOKING FOR "SOMETHING DIFFERENT", LOOK NO FURTHER. Norm brings back those minstrel days by playing the bones and tamborine in addition to pantomiming stars from the past as Mr. Bones, Mr. Tambo, Al Jolson, Jimmy Durante to name a few. The familiar songs of a bygone era combined with a nostalgic look at the minstrel show add up to an unforgettable program.

SICK CALLS

When a priest is called to administer the Sacraments in our homes to the sick, the following preparations should be made:

1. The room should be clean and suitably ornamented.
2. A small table should be conveniently placed, covered with a white cloth.
3. A crucifix placed in the center of the table.
4. Two blessed candles placed in candlesticks on the table. These should be lighted when the priest is expected.
5. A vessel containing holy water should be provided, and a sprinkler if possible.
6. A glass of fresh water placed on the table, a teaspoon and a plate with small crumbs of bread for cleansing the oil from the hands of the priest.
7. A white cloth or towel placed ready to be used by the sick person while receiving Holy Communion.
8. Some cotton wool provided to wipe away the anointing.

When the priest is known to be carrying the Blessed Sacrament, it is a very laudable custom for one of the family to meet him at the street door with a lighted candle and escort him to the sick room. All those present in the room should kneel when the priest enters with the Blessed Sacrament.

The printer for all seasons

Once upon a time all the printing in the Church was confined to monasteries where the monks labored tediously transcribing the words of God for the generations to follow. Centuries later, we at the Fandel Press feel somewhat awed to realize that here in our plant alone we are capable of printing and binding more work in a month than all the monks and artisans of the past ever accomplished in a lifetime. Why is this? The reason is simple. Printing has developed to the point where it is essential to everyday living. It is a vital force for today and the tomorrows of the future. At the Fandel Press, printing has rolled off our presses every working day of every week of every month of every year for fifty-two years . . . indeed the printer for all seasons. Won't you think of us for your next printing order?

Remember

THOSE IN NEED!

What better way to return thanks to God than to include Him in your will. In your charity, specify the "Cardinal's Annual Appeal" in your bequests. Such charity extends the hand of God to those unfortunates, beloved by Him, regardless of race, creed or color.

He has scattereth abroad and has given to the poor;
his justice remains forever.

How blest are the poor in spirit; the reign of God is theirs.
 Blest too are the sorrowing; they shall be consoled.
 Blest are the lowly; they shall inherit the land.
 Blest are they who hunger and thirst for holiness; they shall have their fill.
 Blest are they who show mercy; mercy shall be theirs.
 Blest are the singled-hearted, for they shall see God.
 Blest too the peacemakers; they shall be called sons of God.
 Blest are those persecuted for holiness sake; the reign of God is theirs.
 Blest are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of slander against you because of me.
 Be glad and rejoice, for yor reward in heaven is great.

"Is Your Parish In Need Of Additional Financial Support?"

We can help you to present your appeal to your Parishioners in a manner that is swift, sensitive and successful."

The O'Briens

Our Lady of Sorrows Centennial

16 Greenwood Street, Hartford, CT. 06106-2109 (203) 233-4424

I would most willingly attest to the competence, sensitivity and professionalism of the O'Brien Company.

They have assisted our parish in a wonderfully successful increased Offertory Campaign in September of 1985 and are presently assisting us in our Parish Centenary Development Program.

Their inciteful advice and multi-faced talents have helped make our rather minimal involvement in these programs most enjoyable, educational and beneficial to ourselves and our parish community.

The planning process for each program, the printed materials, the pulpit announcements and, even the thank you notes were tailored to our own parishioners and their particular faith-outlook.

I would heartily suggest The O'Brien Company to any parish or community that needs limited or extensive help in any development program. Their many years of wisdom and fine service in this field are at your service. It would be most prudent and beneficial to use their talents in servings your own people and in building the Kingdom.

In Our Lady of LaSalette,

Fr. Ron Gagne, M.S.

Rev. Ronald Gagne, M.S., co-pastor
